Membership and Voting Rights

3.1 Membership. Each unit owner shall automatically be a member of the Association, which membership shall continue during the period of ownership by such unit owner.

3.2 Voting Rights.

- (a) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, all voting contemplated by these Bylaws shall be governed by the Declaration and any reference herein to the voting rights of any member shall be governed by the relevant provisions of the Declaration.

- (b) Each condominium unit shall be entitled to one vote. A member may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the member or his duly authorized attorney in fact. Any proxy must be in writing, signed by the unit owner (or owners as provided below) and submitted to the President prior to the meeting. If any unit is owned by a corporation, partnership, trustee or other entity or by a group of owners in any form of joint tenancy, the vote allocated to such unit shall be exercisable by such owner or owners, only as provided by the Declaration as amended from time to time. Unless the holder of a valid proxy, a mere lessee of any unit shall have no right to vote and shall in no respect be deemed a member of the Association. In all elections for directors, every member entitled to vote shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of units owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election he has the right to vote, but members may not cumulate their votes.
- (c) During any period in which a unit owner shall be in default in payment of any assessment, the voting rights of such unit owner may be suspended by the Board of Directors until such assessment has been paid. Such rights of the unit owner may also be suspended for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days for violation of any rules and regulations established by the Board of Directors.

3.3 Annual Meetings. The first annual meeting of the unit owners shall be called by the President upon request of the Declarant and shall be held within twelve (12) months following the incorporation of the Association. Each subsequent regular annual meeting of the owners shall be held on the third Tuesday of January in each year, or if such day is a legal holiday than on the next following Tuesday.

3.4 Special Meetings. Unless otherwise prescribed by law, by the Declaration, or by the Articles of Incorporation, special meetings of members may be called for any purpose at any time by the President or by the Board of Directors, or upon written request of the unit owners who are entitled to vote at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the votes of the membership.

3.5 Notice of Meetings. Written notice of each meeting of the unit owners shall be given by, or at the direction of, the secretary or person authorized to call the meeting at least twenty-one (21) days in advance of any annual or regularly scheduled meeting, and at least seven (7) days in advance of any other meeting, stating the time, place and purpose of such meeting. Such notice shall be delivered personally or sent by United States mail, postage prepaid, to all unit owners of record at such address as any of them may have designated or, if no other address has been designated, at the address of their respective units.

3.6 Business of Meetings. At any annual meeting of members, any matter relating to the affairs of the Association, whether or not stated in the notice of meeting, may be brought up for action (unless otherwise provided by law). Unless the majority of the interests of this Association entitled to vote are present and specifically agree thereto in writing, no matter that was not stated in the notice of a special meeting of members shall be brought up for action at such a special meeting.

3.7 Quorum. The holders of more than fifty percent (50%) of the interests entitled to vote, present in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of members for the transaction of business except as otherwise provided by law. If a quorum shall not be present, the members present in person or by proxy shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present. At such reconvened meeting, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the adjourned meeting.

3.8 Majority. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the interests entitled to vote and represented at the meeting shall be the act of the members, except as otherwise agreed by the Declaration, which shall be controlling, and further except that unanimous vote of all members entitled to vote and represented at the meeting shall be required to approve matters at a special meeting of members with respect to matters about which no notice had been given in the notice of such special meeting.

3.9 Action by Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, is signed by the holders of all interests entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

ARTICLE IV

Board of Directors

4.1 Number and Qualifications. Following expiration of the period of the Declarant's right to control the Association pursuant to the provisions of O.C.G.A. § 44-3-101, the Board of Directors of the Association shall be composed of one (1) or more members.

4.2 Election and Term of Office. Upon the termination of the Declarant's right to control the Association pursuant to the provision of O.C.G.A. § 44-3-101, the Declarant shall give at least seven (7) days written notice to each member of a special meeting of the members, to be held not more than thirty (30) days after the date of such termination, to elect a new board of directors. At such meeting, and at each annual meeting thereafter, the unit owners shall elect directors for a term of one (1) year each. Except in the case of death, resignation or removal, each director elected by the members shall serve until the next annual meeting of the members or until their successors are elected, whichever is later. Persons receiving the largest number of votes at any election of directors shall be elected whether or not such number constitutes the majority of the votes cast.

4.3 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors, even though the remaining Directors may constitute less than a quorum of the Board of Directors. A Director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired portion of the term of his predecessor in office.

4.4 Powers. The business and affairs of the Association shall be managed by its Board of Directors which may exercise all such powers of the Association and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by law, the Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws directed or required to be exercised or done by the members.

4.5 Compensation of Directors. The Board of Directors shall receive no compensation.

4.6 Indemnification of Officers and Directors. As an inducement to the officers and directors of the Association to act on the Association's behalf, the Association shall, out of its general funds or by special assessment, indemnify and hold harmless each officer or director acting in good faith and in accordance with these Bylaws and the Declaration, including without limitation, all actions taken in connection with the levying, collection and enforcement of assessments. All such indemnification shall be paid upon written request of such officer or director setting forth in reasonable detail the reason for such indemnification, which request shall be given to each of the officers of the Association.

4.7 Annual Organizational Meeting. The first meeting of the Board of Directors following each annual meeting of the unit owners shall be held within thirty (30) days thereafter, at such time and place as shall be fixed by the newly elected directors of such annual meeting, and no notice shall be necessary in order legally to constitute such meeting.

4.8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such time and place as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors. Notice of the time and place of regular meetings shall be given to every director by mail or telephone at least three (3) days prior to the date of such meeting. If, however, the Board has so fixed the frequency, time and place of regular meetings, no notice thereof shall be necessary.

4.9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President on two (2) days notice to every director given by mail or telephone and setting the time, place and purpose of the meeting. Special meetings shall be called by the President or Secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of directors entitled to cast at least two (2) votes at such meetings.

4.10. Waiver of Notice; Action Without Meeting. Whenever notice of a meeting of the Board of Directors is required to be given under any provision of these Bylaws, a written waiver thereof, executed by a director before or after the meeting and filed with the Secretary, shall be deemed equivalent to notice to the director executing with same. Attendance at a meeting by the director shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting by the director if such director attends the meeting without protesting prior thereto or at the meeting's commencement the lack of notice to him. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any meeting of the Board of Directors may be specified in any written waiver of notice. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting provided that all directors consent to the action in writing and the written consents are filed with the records of the proceedings of the Board of Directors. Such consent shall be treated for all purposes as a vote at a meeting.

4.11. Quorum of the Board. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, each director shall be entitled to cast one (1) vote. The presence in person of directors representing 2/3 of the votes of the Board of Directors shall be a quorum at any Board of Directors meeting and a majority of the votes present and voting shall bind the Board of Directors and the Association as to any matter within the powers and duties of the Board of Directors.
